At the Supreme Court civil sessions, the case of John Gibbons and the Kaipara Steamship Company, comes off. The claim is £2000 damages for loss of a foot torn off at the ankle, by being caught in a bight of a steamer's hawser at Riverhead wharf.

RIVERHEAD

Sir,—Several papers have been sent me in relation to the complaint at Riverhead, and I am glad to hear that you are so well as to be able to go on as vigorously as you are. The fact, this morning, is that the express is an advertisement, but is an advertisement, etc.,

RIVERHEAD

RIVERHEAD is a serious case of a serious case. The police received a report from a man, forming them a public house. On Tuesday, in which the Lamb's Mill, an affair arose out of a Tuesday afternoon. Riverhead in the bushmen, named George Norman, the bushmen go one of them be to Mrs. Messenger, who went into Mr. Messenger of the treatment she had received, followed by him. It is said that Messenger struck Roach, and that there upon Phillips hit Messenger with a bottle, cutting his face in a shocking way. The other man, Norman, then, it seems, stabbed Messenger on the back of the head with a knife, inflicting a severe wound. Messenger was then taken away by some persons who were in the house. Information was sent from Riverhead to the police that Roach was likely to come to town, which he did on Friday, when he was immediately arrested. Sergeant Jarvis and constable
